American Made Statement

To whom it may concern:

All products manufactured by Kaiser Pickles, LLC are processed with final assembly within the United States. All significant processing that goes into our products occurs within our facilities located in Cincinnati, Ohio and Aurora, Indiana. All ingredients for our products are sourced through vendors from U.S. companies within the United States. A minimum of 80% of our cucumbers are grown within the U.S., 100% of our packaging is made in the U.S., and approximately 60% of our ingredients originate in the US.

Sincerely,
